POPE FRANCIS SAYS: One way of maintaining fellowship with our loved ones is to pray for them. The Bible tells us that ‘to pray for the dead’ is ‘holy and pious’. ‘Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercessions for us more effective. Some saints, before dying, consoled their loved ones by promising them that they would be near to help them. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux wished to continue doing good from heaven. Saint Dominic stated that ‘he would be more helpful after death ... more powerful in obtaining graces. These are truly ‘bonds of love’, because ‘the union of the wayfarers with the brethren who sleep in the Lord is in no way interrupted ... [but] reinforced by an exchange of spiritual goods.
