INDULGENCE FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED!

Our loved ones were always faithful in praying for the dead and, thank God, we continue to follow in their footsteps. We remind ourselves of the words of Judas Maccabaeus from the Book of Maccabees:

“It is a noble and glorious thought to pray for the dead”.

We can gain and indulgence for the dead by the following: From 12 noon on Sunday, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the pope’s intentions can gain a plenary indulgence by visiting a church, and there reciting the Our Father and the Creed. Also by visiting a cemetery and praying for the dead from the 1st to the 8th November and following the conditions above. We are unable now to fulfil the conditions but in time we will and God will grant us our wishes.
